COURSE DESCRIPTION

Economics for Lawyers will provide you with an overview of basic tools involved in microeconomic analysis (including game theory, and some basic financial and statistical concepts), and an application of these tools to various areas of the law, including property, contracts, tort, and antitrust. This course will prepare you to think critically about the economic implications of legal rules. The ability to draw on economic arguments to shape legal arguments will make you more effective advocates.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course, you will be able to:

- Understand core economic concepts, such as demand, supply, and market equilibrium.
- Understand the impact of policies like minimum wage laws, taxes, and occupational licensing on market outcomes.
- Think critically about market- and government-based solutions to policy issues.
- Apply economics to better understand doctrines in property, tort, contract, antitrust, and criminal law.
- Use economic analysis to better shape legal arguments and become a better advocate.

INSTRUCTOR EXPECTATIONS

- Students are to adhere to the honor code of the university and the law school, especially with regard to plagiarism rules. Any instance of plagiarism will be reported to the appropriate committee, and we will ask for all available sanctions to be imposed on the guilty party.
- Students are expected to keep up with the required readings, to watch the required recordings, and to participate in Discussion Boards.
- Readings are designed to reinforce lectures and provide examples of concepts discussed in the lectures.
- Students should log on to Blackboard at least every other day to check for announcements.
- Students are expected to independently complete all activities, assignments, and exams.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

This course is delivered asynchronously to accommodate students' other life obligations. Students must access each lecture for an appropriate amount of time and participate substantively in the Discussion Boards.

EXAMINATION POLICY

The exam will be open-book. You may use the textbook and any notes you have created in the course. You may not use notes others have created. Exams submitted outside the permitted time frame without a pre-approved extension will not be accepted and will receive a score of 0.

COURSE SCHEDULE

The Course Schedule, located on the Course Menu, provides due dates for all activities in this course.

GRADING POLICY

This course consists of a series of activities and assessments to assist you in achieving the objectives of the course and instructional units. Each week you will work on various combinations of Discussion Board Questions and Readings. You will also take a Midterm Examination and a Cumulative Final Examination.

DISCUSSION BOARD POSTS:

The Discussion Boards are related to chapter readings and lectures. Upon completion or near completion of the assigned readings and lectures, you are expected to engage in an ongoing discussion with your learning community peers. There will often be multiple Discussion Board questions per module. You should expect to spend at least an hour in the Discussion Board for each question. You will be asked to respond to the question and then respond to at least one of your classmates. At least 60% of the Discussion Boards will be assessed to assure that your post is (1) timely; (2) reflects effort and knowledge; and (3) adheres to the minimum word requirements. Successful participation in each Discussion Board is worth 1 point. Discussion Boards assessment will count for 30% of your final grade. Please refer to the course schedule for due dates and times. Late submissions will receive a grade of zero. Plagiarized submissions will receive a grade of zero.

EXAMINATIONS:

There are two examinations in this class: a Midterm and a Final. The Midterm Examination is worth 30% of your final course grade and will cover all lectures and material assigned through Module 6 (Market Structure and Antitrust). The Final Examination is worth 40% of your grade and will be cumulative, but with a greater emphasis placed on material and lectures after the Midterm Examination (Modules 7-10). All Examinations for this class will be multiple choice.

Assignment	Percentage
Discussion Boards	30%
Midterm Examination	30%
Final Examination	40%
Total	100%
